Pat Mussieux

Pat Mussieux is a dynamic speaker, leadership coach, facilitator, author and volunteer.

In the past 25 years, Pat has been a keynote speaker at International, National and Provincial Conferences such as: Canadian Society of Respiratory Therapists, Western Canadian Conference for Teaching Assistants, National Society for Fundraising Executives, The Pacific Institute International Conference, Alberta Call Center Association and so on. In addition to the Motivational/Inspirational keynote addresses, Pat has delivered keynote and training sessions to well over 10,000 people in the past decade.

Pat's presentations are lively, relevant, appealing and interactive. Her dynamic speaking style has given her top ratings each time. Her topics range from Personal Accountability and Responsibility ("If its to be, It's Up to Me!"), Goal-Setting, Leadership, Marketing and Sales, Team-Building, Motivation and Inspiration.

Pat is passionate about "giving back" to the community. She was a member of the Board of Directors for the Alberta Call Center Association, the Alberta Alzheimer Society and the Alzheimer Society of Canada.

Pat has her own business, "Purple People Leaders", and specializes in Motivational Speaking, Coaching and HR Recruiting/consulting.

Her sense of adventure has taken her on tours around the world, twice, on a private plane. She is the author of "Who Am I Now? – Simple Steps to Invent your Future after Divorce, Death of a Partner, Empty Nest, Early Retirement, etc." Pat is also a contributing author to the book "Leadership Gurus Speak Out" (available November 2007) and "Where Am I Now? Pat's Travel Adventures Around the World on a Private Plane" (available December 2007).

Pat travels from London, Ontario, Canada.
